

Emma Lloyd
Project Manager

EDUCATION

Educated at Heathcote School, Stevenage

- 11 GCSE's
- 3 A-level's

University College of Wales, Aberystwyth

- BA – French, German & Spanish (Triple Honours)

Goldsmith Management College

- Diploma in Management Studies (DMS) – Distinction

Chartered Management Institute (CMI)

- Coaching & Mentoring

Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM)

- Managing People & Projects

Ongoing Learning

- PRINCE 2 Project Management

TRAINING & COURSES

- Project Manager Training
- Teaching in the Lifelong Learning Sector (Adult)
- Health & Safety in the Workplace
- Health & Safety Audits
- Emergency First Aid
- Practical First Aid
- Pool Plant Operator
- Principles in Manual Handling
- Train the Trainer
- Leadership & Management
- Sales Management
- Management Communication
- HR Training in: Discipline & Grievance, Appraisals, Interviewing & Recruitment.

PERSONAL OVERVIEW

Emma has recently joined Bentley Rowe, following 15 years working in the Leisure Industry, having worked in both public and private sector Health Clubs, where she was responsible for delivering large redevelopment projects.

WHAT EMMA WILL BRING TO THE PROJECT

Emma is a highly motivated professional who provides energy and focus to efficiently deliver complex and challenging projects, ensuring that client expectations are always met and where possible, exceeded from her vast experience of working in the Health & Fitness Industry

SMALL SELECTION OF PROJECTS UNDERTAKEN

PROJECT	LOCATION	VALUE
Porchester Centre Health & Fitness, Re-development	City of Westminster	£2m
Various re-development projects, including, Gyms, Creches, Café's, Studio's, Trampoline Parks	UK Wide	£1m plus
Woughton Leisure Centre renovation	Milton Keynes	£1.5m